Overview: This third session should see the completion of 12 units from the textbook, Listen In 3 by David Nunan. However, some classes may complete more of the textbook than other classes because the number of contact hours for each class is different (16, 22, 20, and 18 hours respectively). I plan to complete two textbook units each week. If time permits, I will supplement our textbook lessons with authentic materials from a variety of sources and communicative games and activities that you may want to incorporate into your language learning classroom. Any supplementary material that we use in class will be available for download from my website:

www.walterforeman.com

Evaluation: Evaluation for this class is done by means of a 90-minute listening test given near the end of the session. The evaluation criteria for the listening test are listed on page 7 of your guidebook. Like all evaluation in this program, the grading for the listening evaluation is done on a curve. The distribution of grades is found on page 8 of your guidebook. Your instructor will give you more detailed information about the evaluation as the actual date draws nearer.
