

Listening Station Dictation

Directions:

- one member from your team moves to the listening station
- that member listens to ONE track on the CD (as many times as he/she likes)
- that member returns to the group and dictates the sentence to the group
- the other group members write the sentence on this sheet
- after the sentence is complete, the next group member moves to the listening station
- continue this procedure until the story is complete

Things to remember:

- the person at the listening station cannot take notes! Only listen! No writing!
- all the group members must write all the sentences on this sheet
- at the listening station you can only listen to ONE track (but as many times as you like)
- there are just two buttons to use at the listening station: PLAY and PREV./NEXT
- the volume can be turned up or down on the headset
