

A

Sam and Sheri love to shop and luckily they are really rich.
Last Saturday they went shopping at Little Lisa's Shopping Center.
They spent lots of money on things for their house and for themselves.
Sam bought dishes and a set of pots and pans for his delicious meals.
Sheri purchased new scissors, silk shirts, and a chess game.
Sam and Sheri spent so much money that now they're broke.

B

Sheila and Sara love to shop but unfortunately they're poor.
Last Sunday, they shopped for things on sale at Leaving Las Vegas Shopping Center.
Sheila has several hobbies so she spent her savings on fishing hooks and running shoes.
Sara's hobby is sewing, so she bought lots of cheap sheets so she can sew curtains.
Sheila and Sara see that you don't need to be rich to shop.

C

Jake and Jane live in a tree house that is covered with leaves.
Some people think it's weird to live in a tree house, but Jake and Jane think it's neat.
When it rains in the winter, their house leaks and they don't have any heat.
Jane sometimes misses living in a real house and thinks about leaving.
But then she just grins and wishes for more green leaves in which to live.

D

Peter lives near a peach orchard and picks peaches for a living.
Every morning, he leaves his living quarters to pick peaches all day.
Picking peaches leaves Pete with a pretty good living,
But sometimes Pete's wages are somewhat cheap.
So Pete picks the peaches when they're at the peak of freshness.
And Pete leaves the unpicked peaches to be picked another time.